

Notice about supplementary issues

It is a good news that we plan to publish supplementary issues in that there are a large amount of excellent manuscripts .By this way, we can make sure all the articles could be published timely. Herein all the staff of APJHS express sincere gratitude to those who have submitted manuscripts to our journal. The journal is expected to become better and better under the great support and efforts made by the authors worldwide.